Dear Mom and Dad ~

The first few days here were kinda crazy. I waited in line for hours to register, then there were so many papers to sign. On top of that, everyone was moving in. I've made so many friends and our dorm looks really homey now. But it's nothing like home - we drew on the walls! I know this is where God wants me to be. It's going to be a great year!

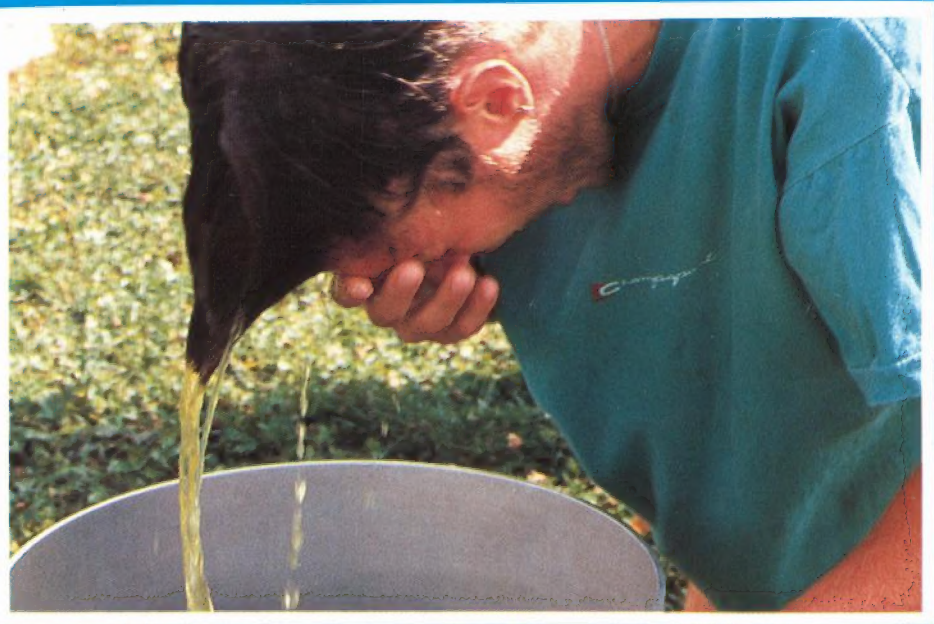

TOP RIGHT: This year classes began on September 7.
 ABOVE: There's more to Redeemer College than first meets the eye!
 TOP AND CENTRE LEFT: Students have different ways of dealing with the challenges of university life.
 LEFT: Jack Klooster supervises as students remember last year at the yearbook picture sale.

Feeling Any?

OVERRUN BY STRESS

Overrun by unbearable stress
Every morning before I dress,
I reach out and punch the wall
I give it a good one, give it my all.

Hurt my hand, ain't that great
Now this wall forever I'll hate
My hand hurts, I broke my thumb
It felt great, but sure was dumb.

- Jack Klooster

Message from the President

It has always been a privilege and honour for me to be asked by you to write in every edition of ANNO DOMINI. As I do so for the last time I cannot help but reflect on the blessings of growth and maturity that the Lord gave us. Each edition of the yearbook became more sophisticated and polished, much like everything else on campus. During the years since 1982, the student body, the academic program, the facilities, the faculty, and staff, all matured at a rapid rate. Sometimes we had to run when we did not yet know how to walk but through it all the Lord gave courage, strength and wisdom and led us to the year 1994. We thank Him for the opportunity to serve while He tarries.

As this yearbook becomes a keepsake and when many years from now you take another look at it, then remember the faithfulness of the Lord and the opportunity He gave you when He led you to a Christian university. It is my prayer that the lives reflected on its pages may bear much fruit.

I want to thank God for the opportunity He gave me to give leadership to Redeemer College. You, the students were always a priority as I and others planned the development of the College. As I leave I will continue to pray for you and for Redeemer College.

Congratulations to the yearbook committee who worked diligently to prepare this edition.

May God bless you all.

Your president,

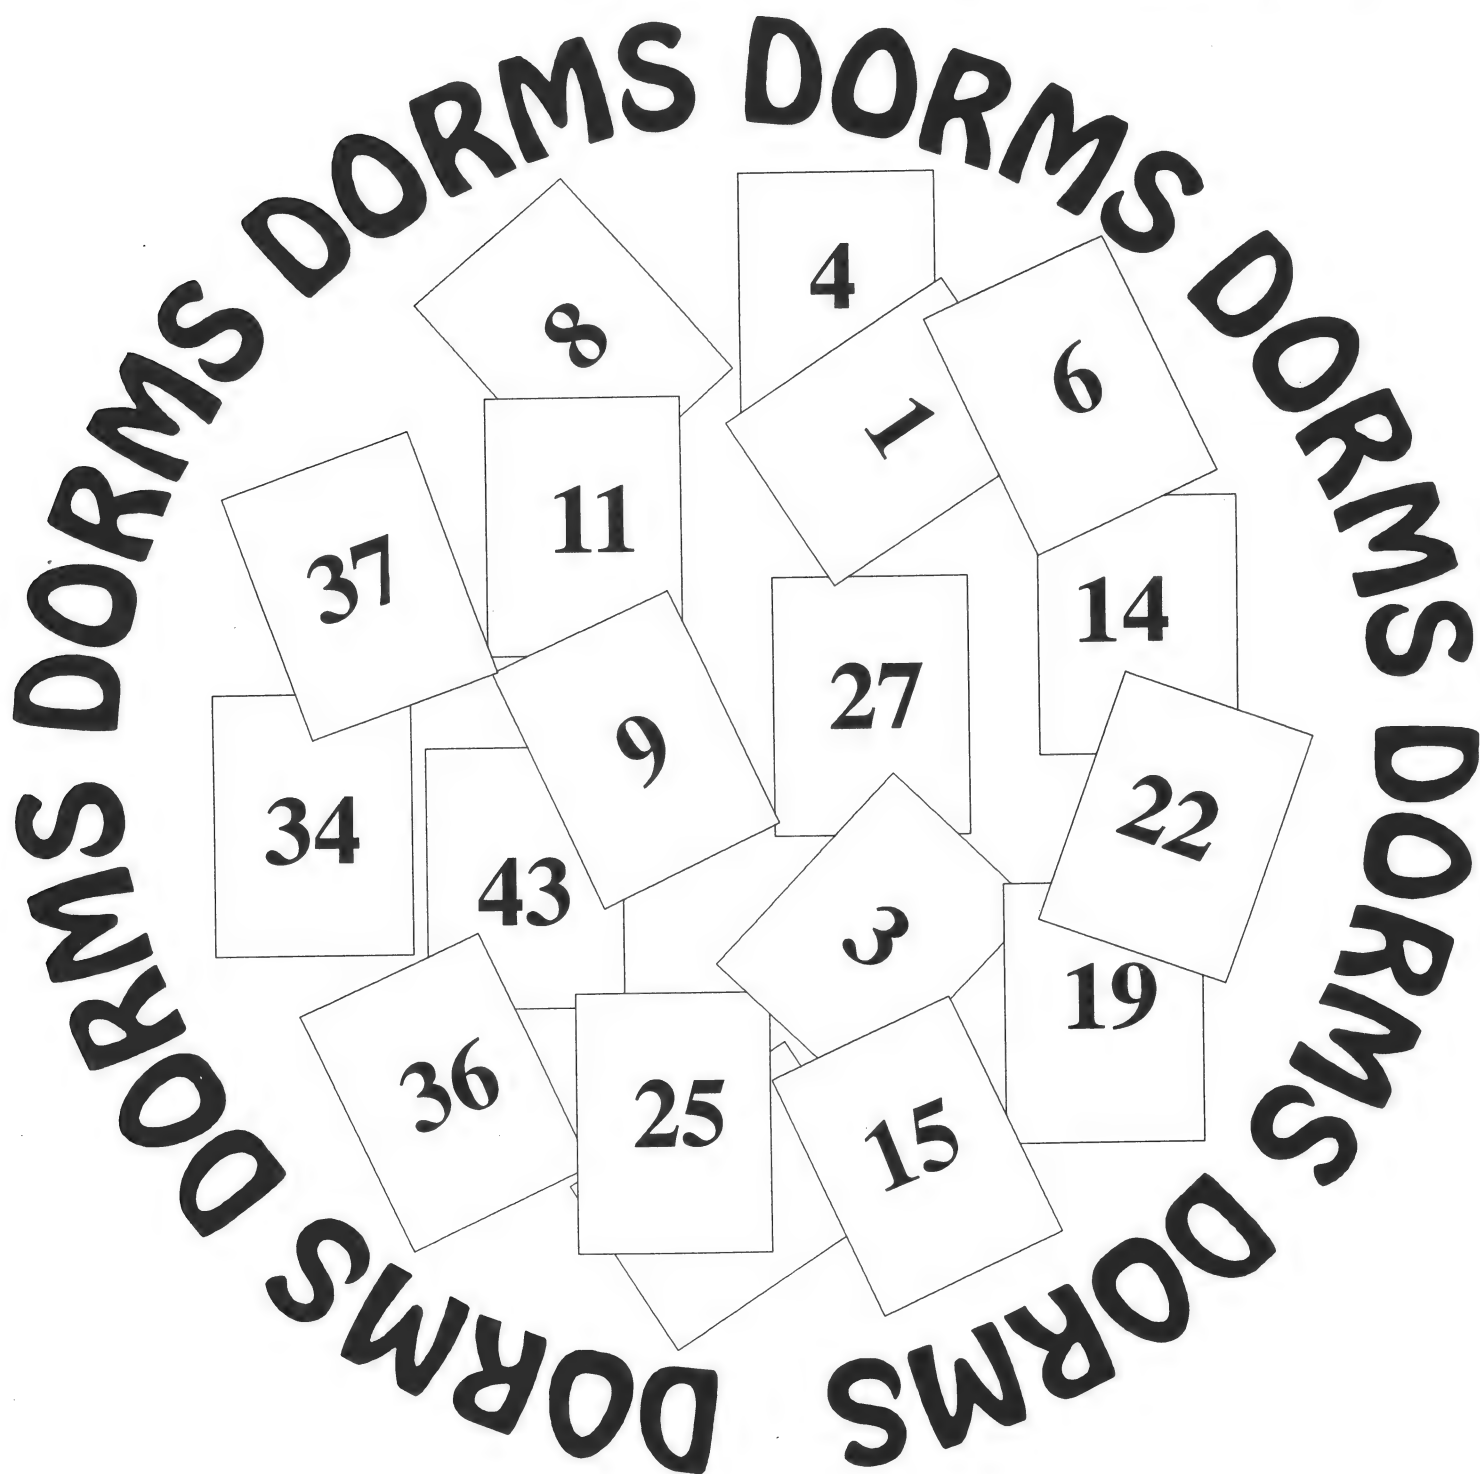

Henry R. De Bolster

In Memory of Ken Rozoski

Ken Rozoski was a dedicated coach of the Redeemer women's basketball program since September 1991. He had a great love for basketball and was proud to be a part of the Redeemer athletic program. More than a coach of basketball, Ken was also a coach of life. He taught his players self-discipline and how to be winners despite losing. Ken will be remembered always for his love and dedication of basketball, for his ever positive winning attitude, but most of all for being a coach and friend.

GENERAL CONTRACTORS

Debbie Dekok and Jennifer Feenstra

We would like to thank all the dedicated yearbook staff who have helped us put the Anno Domini together this year. You never ceased to amaze us when deadlines needed to be met. Thanks especially to Jennifer Feddema who was always willing to help. Thanks to Annette Merritt for all the work she did with the pictures and a big thank you to Jack Klooster, our "special events man". We hope this book will serve as a reminder of your days at Redeemer for many days to come.
